4. Staff will review the application for “sufficiency” pursuant to Section 19-2.2.6, Determination of Sufficiency. If the application is deemed insufficient, staff will notify the applicant and request that the application be revised and resubmitted to address insufficiency comments. In this event, the item will go back into the queue for review. Please refer to section 19-2.3.13 (D), Multifamily residential development for additional information.
5. Public Notice Requirements. Multifamily development applications require a Planning Commission public hearing. There is also an informal review from the Design Review Board required prior to the planning commission hearing.
6. The applicant is responsible for sign posting the subject property. Instructions will be provided at the time of submission.
7. Multifamily development applications also require a developer-led neighborhood meeting which is to be held at least eight (8) days prior to the scheduled Planning Commission hearing (Sec. 19-2.2.4, Neighborhood meetings). Information will be emailed within a few days of submittal to the listed applicant email provided on page one of this application.
8. Upon planning commission recommendation, the application item will be scheduled for city council hearing.

To be filled out at time of application submittal

- _____ Public Hearing signs are acknowledged as received by the applicant
- _____ Posting sign instructions and affidavit are acknowledged as received by the applicant

9. Please verify that all required information is reflected on the plan(s), and submit one (1) paper copy and one (1) electronic version of the application submittal package.
10. Please read carefully: The applicant and property owner affirm that all information submitted with this application; including any/all supplemental information is true and correct to the best of their knowledge and they have provided full disclosure of the relevant facts.

In addition, the applicant affirms that the applicant or someone acting on the applicant’s behalf has made a reasonable effort to determine whether a deed or other document places one or more restrictions on the property that preclude or impede the intended use and has found no record of such a restriction.

If the planning office by separate inquiry determines that such a restriction exists, it shall notify the applicant. If the applicant does not withdraw or modify the application in a timely manner, or act to have the restriction terminated or waived, then the planning office will indicate in its report to the planning commission that granting the requested change would not likely result in the benefit the applicant seeks.
